

TRABER CENTER

Reservation and Pricing Policies

Reservation Process

To make a reservation at the Traber Center, three items are required:

- A completed application
- A $400 reservation fee
- A Certificate of Liability Insurance with "BCM Intl/Camp Sankanac listed as the certificate holder"

All reservations at the Traber Center require a $400 non-refundable and non-transferable reservation fee. This fee is in addition to the cost of your stay and is not transferable should you need to switch dates. The Traber Center has a minimum usage fee of $2,500 in per person costs.

Your reservation fee holds your desired date for up to one year. In order to "roll over" your date to the corresponding date the following year, a new reservation fee is required. You will have the option to pay that fee along with your invoice for the weekend or wait and pay it later. Please note the date cannot be secured without the rollover fee and will be considered open and available for other interested groups.

(Please note that we do not accept postdated checks.)

Traber Center Cancellation Fees

When a reservation is made, your date is confirmed on our calendar and we are expecting your group and planning for your arrival. All cancellations made after the reservation fee and paperwork are finalized will result in a loss of the reservation fee.

If the cancellation is made within 60 days of your confirmed date, you will lose your reservation fee and incur a cancellation fee of $2,500.

Please understand that, as good stewards of the Lord's ministries here, it has become impossible for us to absorb the lost revenue from a cancelled weekend or short-notice date change. Our goal, as always, is to provide an affordable, high quality facility for your group and the Lord's glory.

By signing the rental contract, you agree to these terms.
